

A system for implementing the commercial component of energy transactions, involving the automatic formation and secure storage of smart contracts that record the parameters of energy transactions, verification of their execution, financial payment under fulfilled obligations, recording of discrepancies and disputes, use of data for their ...

EVOLVE your Energy Services. Empower your customers to take control of their AMI data. With Automated Energy's customer engagement tools, your customers can save on energy expenses and you can prepare for the future of public power. Connect With Us

The purpose of this article is to characterize the features of business models of large Russian extractive companies operating in the fuel and energy complex and to describe the possible ...

Automated Energy Inc. (AEI) is dedicated to empowering energy consumers with relevant and timely information needed to make smart energy decisions. Founded in 1999, in Oklahoma City, AEI serves utility companies, municipalities, building management companies as well as small commercial and big-box retailers, and commercial industrial businesses ...

The experts at Automated Energy Inc. are dedicated to empowering energy consumers with relevant and timely information needed to make smart energy decisions using customer engagement tools to view metered data, cost and consumption ...

As a leading provider of web based energy information services, Automated Energy has been working with public power providers since 1999. We turn your meter data into a branded daily energy information service from your web site designed to serve the growing information needs of your commercial and industrial customers.

Automated Energy, Inc. S A N T % * S = Strong; A = Active; N = Niche; T= Trivial (1%) * Login to Participate & View Data Stacks * Participating executives must be from a competitive company. Executive credentials are validated by a one-time two-factor authentication, in compliance with GDPR guidelines.

Web: <https://gennergyps.co.za>