In 2022 alone, European grid-scale energy storage demand will see a mighty 97% year-on-year growth, deploying 2.8GW/3.3GWh. This reflects energy storage's emergence as a mainstream power technology. Over the next decade, the top 10 markets in Europe will add 73 GWh of energy storage, amounting to 90% of new deployments.

Sungrow has lost its crown as the "lead producer" in the battery energy storage system (BESS) integrator market to Tesla, according to the Wood Mackenzie report "Global battery energy storage system integrator ranking 2024". Tesla claimed a ...

Installations in Europe are expected to exceed 100GWh by 2030 with Germany and Italy leading the market. Wood Mackenzie states that high power prices will push the European non-residential segment from 11% in 2020 to 19% in 2030, while the residential market will exceed 27GWh by 2030.

Energy storage: Navigating revenues for grid-scale batteries Governments and transmission system operators (TSOs) are finally recognising the crucial role energy storage has to play in facilitating the energy transition.

3 ???&#0183; The U.S. energy storage market set new installation records in Q3 2024, according to the latest "U.S. Energy Storage Monitor" report released by the American Clean Power Association's (ACP) and Wood Mackenzie. This is the highest record for third-quarter installations, with a total of 3.8 GW ...

M& A is taking share across European energy storage landscape: Strategic acquisitions have become the route to the market for established players to expand their footprint in the energy storage landscape. In particular, utilities have become more active and started acquiring smaller battery players to improve their market positions.
