

Through one of its funds, the DIF Infrastructure VI fund and Dutch Climate Action Fund Equity Vintage 1 fund, DIF reached an agreement to purchase a 60% stake in Novar. Novar holds a prominent position as the primary developer of expansive sustainable energy systems in the Netherlands.

DIF Capital Partners, through its DIF Infrastructure VI fund and Dutch Climate Action Fund Equity Vintage 1 fund, has entered into an agreement to acquire a 60% stake in Novar, the primary developer of large-scale sustainable energy systems in the Netherlands.

Dutch investment fund Capital Partners will purchase a 60% share of the Dutch developer of solar, Novar, the companies announced earlier this week. The transaction, dependent on regulatory approvals, is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2023. The financial terms of the transaction were not revealed.

Extensive expertise to make the Netherlands more sustainable. We work for companies, government institutions and cooperatives, as well as wholesale clients, landowners and clients with green ambitions. Whatever challenge you're facing - whether it's network congestion, funding or regulations - we'll find a solution.

DIF Capital Partners (via its DIF Infrastructure VI fund) has signed an agreement to acquire 60% of Novar, the leading developer of large-scale sustainable energy systems in the Netherlands. The transaction marks the start of a long-term collaboration to deliver sustainable and innovative renewable energy solutions.

DIF Capital Partners has signed an agreement to acquire 60% of Novar, a developer of solar and energy storage systems in the Netherlands. As part of the investment, DIF will provide growth capital to among others support the expansion of Novar's utility-scale solar, rooftop solar and battery energy storage systems (BESS ) portfolio.

Through one of its funds, the DIF Infrastructure VI fund and Dutch Climate Action Fund Equity Vintage 1 fund, DIF reached an agreement to purchase a 60% stake in Novar. Novar holds a prominent position as the ...

DIF Capital Partners has signed an agreement to acquire 60% of Novar, a developer of solar and energy storage systems in the Netherlands. DIF will be investing in Novar to support the expansion of its utility-scale solar, rooftop solar, and battery energy storage systems (BESS) portfolio.

Global infrastructure investment manager DIF Capital Partners unveiled today a deal to take a 60% stake in Novar, a Dutch ground-mounted solar PV firm and independent power producer (IPP) backed by German engineering, procurement and construction (EPC) provider Ib vogt.

DIF Capital Partners, through its DIF Infrastructure VI fund and Dutch Climate Action Fund Equity Vintage 1 fund, has entered into an agreement to acquire a 60% stake in Novar, the primary ...

We are Novar. We realise major turn-key solar energy and energy storage projects, smart grids and more. Every asset we deliver contributes to your green energy system - from clean generation and storage to smart supply and management.

Web: <https://gennergyps.co.za>