The earliest known settlers of the Pitcairn Islands were Polynesians who appear to have settled on Pitcairn and Henderson Islands by at least the 11th Century, [1] and on the more populous Mangareva Island 540 kilometres (340 mi) to the northwest, for several centuries. These first inhabitants may have maintained a trading relationship with Mangareva, in which they ...

A large part of Pitcairn Island's early history will forever remain a mystery. The full history of both the earlier Polynesian community and of the Bounty settlers will never be completely known.[See "Pre-Mutineer History"] Differing theories and contradicting stories concerning the events that took place after the mutineers arrived at Pitcairn, have been told.
