The EN-C has two outlets (also called the EN-C2) to handle two ionizing product connections. The EN-C4 has four outlets to handle up to four (4) connections. The EN-C2 and EN-C4 are CSA approved for North and South American Applications. The EN-SL or S-Line power supplies or power packs are CE approved and used where the CE mark is necessary.

Identical in all technical aspects to the EN SL LC, the EN SL RLC power pack comes additionally with a signal socket above the earthing sleeve. A fault message can be connected to the signal socket. The maximum contact load is 24 V AC / 35 V DC and max. 50 mA (see contact scheme and logic diagram).
