Earlier this year, our dream was realized: South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands" received the highest MPA designation status possible. We were elated to learn that 449,000 square kilometers of the region have been entirely closed off from fishing activity.

South Georgia, sometimes referred to as Isla San Pedro, is an island that is located in the South Atlantic Ocean and is part of the British administration of the South Sandwich Islands and part of the British Overseas Territory of South Georgia. The island is located 1400km from the Falkland Islands and is about 170km long and 35km wide.

Perched like small dots in the middle of the South Atlantic Ocean between South America, Africa, and the continent of Antarctica, South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands have limited territory and a tiny population. South Georgia is only 100 miles long and 20 miles wide, with snow perpetually covering most of the island.

South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands (SGSSI) comprise an Overseas Territory of the UK. For over two centuries, the islands and surrounding waters were subject to serial over-exploitation of commercially valuable marine species. First seals, then whales, and later some species of fish were harvested to virtual economic extinction.
